Butte Community Bank Receives Super Premier Performing Designation

Chico, CA (4/23/08) – Butte Community Bank is proud to announce that it has received the designation of Super Premier Performing Bank from The Findley Reports for the year 2007. This is the highest designation available and the bank has received this award for 16 years in a row.

Butte Community Bank opened for business on December 14, 1990 and starting in 1992 has been a Super Premier Performer every year. For a bank to receive this honor every year since its inception is a rare achievement in the 40-year history of The Findley Reports.

“Our goal is to exceed the expectations of our customers and shareholders,” said John Coger, president and chief operating officer of Butte Community Bank. “We’re honored to be recognized once again as a Super Premier Performing Bank.”

The Bank’s success is based on the leadership philosophies of employee recognition, rewards, training and the delivery of superior service to customers. Butte Community Bank is an active member and supporter of the communities that it serves and stays focused on being the best community bank in Northern California.

About The Findley Reports on Financial Institutions

Since 1967, The Findley Reports has been the foundation of the Findley Companies, providing comprehensive financial information to help management meet the challenges and complexities of bank operations. These reports provide the banking industry with performance benchmarking through the following annual designations: Super Premier Performing, Premier Performing and Commendable Performing. These designations have become highly regarded and recipients are recognized throughout the Western United States as financial institutions achieving exceptional performance.
