Community Valley Bancorp Announces Voluntary Delisting of Its Common Stock

Chico, CA (9/18/09) - Community Valley Bancorp, (NASDAQ:CVLL), the holding company for Butte Community Bank, announced today that it has given formal written notice to the NASDAQ Stock Market ("NASDAQ") of the Company's intention to voluntarily delist its common stock from the NASDAQ Capital Market. The Company also announced it intends to deregister its common stock under Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). The Company currently anticipates that it will file a Form 25 with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and NASDAQ relating to the delisting and deregistration of its common stock on or about September 28, 2009. As a result, the Company expects that the last day of trading of its common stock on the NASDAQ Capital Market will be at the close of trading on September 25, 2009.

The decision to delist has been reached as part of the Company's overall strategy to conserve resources and improve cost-effectiveness as the benefits of maintaining a NASDAQ listing have not materialized. Considering the limited trading volume and low trading prices on NASDAQ, the Company has concluded a listing on NASDAQ does not justify the expense and administrative burden associated with maintaining such listing.

Following the delisting, the Company anticipates that its common stock will be quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board, a centralized electronic quotation service for over-the-counter securities, so long as market makers demonstrate an interest in trading in the Company's common stock. However, the Company can give no assurance that trading in its common stock will continue on any securities exchange or quotation medium. The Company will continue to file periodic and other reports with the SEC as the Company's common stock will remain registered under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act.
